

Life Membership Citation

Name : Nancy Rawlings

Nancy joined U3AYP in 2004. At the AGM 30th May 2005 she was nominated and was then accepted at the meeting on 20th June 2005.

At the AGM on 28th May 2007, she was elected to the position of treasurer, taking over from Max Bettison and she has held that position on the Management Committee ever since.

As treasurer, she keeps financial records, lists of financial members, distributes name tags and sends out welcome letters to all new members.

Her involvement has also extended to that of course leader related to Scrapbooking and Card Making as well as making a large contribution to Travelling Tales presentations. Nancy shares many interests and continues to support the courses on offer including Mahjong, Tai Chi, Photography and Sew and Yarn.

During Carlene Cook's presidency, Nancy accompanied her to a state meeting as well as attending an Adelaide meeting with Jean Wheare. Her interest and enthusiasm have included taking part in the Riverland and Hahndorf Rendezvous.

Despite the various changes and challenges that have confronted U3AYP over the years, Nancy has demonstrated her dedication to this organisation since its inception.

Nancy truly epitomizes the qualities of a quiet achiever.

Her ongoing commitment throughout the years, with a no fuss approach has not escaped those of us who have had the privilege of working alongside of her on the Management Committee and taking part in courses with her.

Nancy has promoted our organization with dedication. As treasurer she has fulfilled her role in her quiet but responsible manner. She understands the importance of strong leadership and her constant support has been clearly demonstrated.

Nancy deserves this award because of :

- her willingness to take on various roles and to share her knowledge and experiences
- her quiet perseverance
- her energy and expertise
- her ongoing service to others
